In Memoriam:

*Professor Sir David Todd
(1928 - 2017)*

The Hong Kong Academy of Medicine announces with great sadness the passing of our Founding President, Professor Sir David Todd.

Professor Todd passed away peacefully on 16 August 2017 after a brief illness at Queen Mary Hospital, where his medical education matured and exceptional career achievement endured. He was surrounded by his family, beloved students and mentees.

Professor Todd was instrumental in the establishment of the Academy. He was Chairman of the Preparatory Committee (1990-1992) and served as founding President (1992-1996). To recognise his tremendous contributions, an Oration is named after him and held annually at the Academy. He was also conferred an Honorary Fellowship in 1997.

Widely revered by the medical profession for his achievements in the medical profession and highly respected in the community, Professor Todd left behind a legacy of love, respect, leadership and, most importantly, humanism. He will be fondly remembered and greatly missed by family and friends, colleagues and students. His spirit and visions will forever remain the foundation of the Academy.
